

Water and Energy Conservation

ESC members support the school in preparing logistics for their peers to undergo water rationing exercise during Woodgrove Water Week (WWW) where students learn the importance of saving water by going through the experience of having water shortage.

ESC members getting ready to prepare logistic for water rationing exercise