WOODGROVE SECONDARY SCHOOL

A School of Choice. A Community of Dynamic Learners.

17 May 2018

Dear Parent(s) / Guardian(s),

RED CROSS YOUTH WARRANT OFFICERS' PROGRAMME 2018

As a leader of the Woodgrove Red Cross Youth, our child / ward has been selected to participate in the Warrant Officers' Programme 2018.

This programme, consisting of two camps held over two separate weekends, aims to hone their leadership skills and help them to learn, understand, and appreciate the impact and importance of RCY at a national level. They will be empowered to:

- 1) Lead their committee members and cadets towards their shared aspirations
- 2) Create a culture of learning, care, and excellence within their unit
- 3) Manage conflicts and make responsible decisions while leading their unit

To pass WOP, participants will be assessed and required to fulfill the following minimum requirements:

- 1) Attend the whole programme (maximum of 1 day of absence for medical or personal reasons supported by relevant documents)
- 2) Obtain at least 60% on Individual Proficiency Tests and Group Work

Participants who meet the attendance requirements and attain 90% on Individual Proficiency Tests and Group Work will be awarded the Red Lanyard.
